

The diagram shows a chessboard with the text "CHESS 960" in the center. The board is surrounded by a border of chess pieces. Arrows indicate the movement of pieces from the board to the border and vice versa. The pieces are arranged in a specific pattern, with some pieces being moved from the board to the border and others being moved from the border to the board.